ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Many organizations and individuals prefer to settle contentious matters through alternative dispute resolution rather than go to trial, a choice that often requires the services of a certified mediator or arbitrator. Some South Carolina counties now require mediation for complex cases. Richardson Plowden maintains a large team of experienced mediators and arbitrators who are certified to handle state and national business, civil and personal injury matters. We take a reasoned approach that assures the impartial perspective needed to assist parties in reaching mutually agreeable solutions. Additionally, our Columbia office features a self-contained meeting facility composed of eight conference rooms that accommodate up to 60 people. It is a neutral site where confidentiality is assured.

We encourage you to contact any of our experienced alternative dispute resolution attorneys listed below.
