HEALTHCARE LAW

For 35 years, Richardson Plowden has served South Carolina's healthcare community, providing advice on corporate, regulatory, and healthcare law issues. Our experienced attorneys represent hospitals, physicians, dentists, other healthcare institutions and individual providers, and do so with professionalism, confidentiality and an unwavering focus on the nuances of law, the facts of the matter and the desired outcome. The Firm regularly advises clients concerning the anti-kickback statute and safe harbors, certificates of need, contracts, corporate compliance, credentialing, joint ventures, medical staff matters, mergers, asset acquisitions, Stark and its exceptions, the False Claims Act, HIPAA and other regulatory issues.

We encourage you to contact our experienced healthcare law attorneys listed below.
