George Beighley of Richardson Plowden Selected to MUSC Board of Visitors

COLUMBIA, S.C., March 10, 2011 - - Richardson, Plowden & Robinson, P.A. is pleased to announce that medical malpractice attorney George C. Beighley was recently appointed to the Medical University of South Carolina's (MUSC) Board of Visitors.

The MUSC Board of Visitors serves as ambassadors on behalf of the Medical University. Comprised of prominent community leaders from across South Carolina, the Board provides insight as to how MUSC might best meet the education and healthcare needs of South Carolina. The Board of Visitors also communicates MUSC's services, goals and priorities to the communities in which they live.

A shareholder of Richardson Plowden, Beighley is the Firm's practice group leader of the Medical Malpractice Team. He focuses his practice on medical malpractice defense and is also a certified mediator. Prior to joining Richardson Plowden, Beighley was the assistant attorney general for South Carolina from 1975 to 1978. He earned his juris doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law. An experienced speaker, Beighley often presents on topics of medical malpractice at seminars, continuing medical education programs, and conferences. He is a member of the South Carolina Bar, Richland County Bar Association, and the South Carolina Defense Trial Attorneys' Association.
