Richardson Plowden Salutes Palmetto Health Hospice

COLUMBIA, S.C., November 3, 2011 - - Richardson, Plowden & Robinson, P.A. raised a glass to Palmetto Health Hospice and Palliative Care at the non-profit organization's first annual Salute the Senses fundraiser. Richardson Plowden was a sponsor of the event, which had more than 225 people in attendance and raised more than $25,000 for Palmetto Health Hospice and Palliative Care. The Funds raise will go toward providing provide medical, emotional, social and spiritual support for Hospice patients and their families.

"From simple companionship to relief for exhausted family members, the mission of Hospice is to help relieve pain, fear and loneliness and to support the family before and after a patient's death," says Richardson Plowden attorney Emily Gifford, who is a board member of Palmetto Health Hospice. "The support of so many generous organizations through fundraisers like this one will help us continue to fulfill that mission."
